Council Liaisons Report:

Councilwoman Correa stated that the town was in the process of passing a No Smoking Rule at Memorial Park.

She also spoke about the fact that she will not signing any Recreation invoices as per her attorney. The reason for this is because the recreation computer finance program was not yet updated. But she would sign for any out of pocket expenses that Senior Ball coaches paid the umps.

Liaison Correa mention that she was upset with the response she received from Chairman Tonner regarding the E-Mail she sent to him but due to the fact Chairman Tonner was not present at meeting the discussion was tabled.

Vice-Chair Report: None

Directors Report: Recreation will be having the coaches from basketball come up to the Boro Hall to have their picture taken for the ID Lanyards they will have to wear when they are on any of the town’s fields or in any of our Gyms. This will show they have met all the certification requirements needed to be a coach for recreation.
